

Meet Vicki

Vicki holds a Masters in Counseling Psychology from Southern California Seminary; however, she is not a CA-licensed therapist. She believes that for counseling to be effective and lasting, it must be Christ-centered, biblically-based, and Spirit-led. Vicki is committed to respecting the values of each person and to provide a safe place in which to seek growth and promote the healing process.